

Nomination Deadline: Monday, October 16, 2017

Institutions of higher education may nominate an organizational unit or person that has demonstrated the outstanding use of a new technology tool or delivery system to accomplish a new method of student delivery or learning. The students may be located on or off campus, and may be taking a face-to-face, blended learning, or fully distance course. The application must include how the efforts of the organizational unit or individual are new, innovative, unique and replicable.

Nominees should not use more space than is allotted on the application. Be prepared to provide access to the innovate elearning technology for the evaluation team. Thank you.
